

Centre for European and Latin American Studies Jamia Millia Islamia and Instituto Cervantes, Nueva Delhi invite you to the book release of “Itinerarios” and “Poemasmetálicos” by

Nuño Aguirre and y Subhro Bandopadhyay at 6.30 pm on March 13, 2014 at the Conference Hall, Instituto Cervantes, Cannaught Place, New Delhi

Nuño Aguirre de Cárcer, currently Visiting Lecturer of Spanish language at Jamia Millia Islamia, was born in 1982 in Madrid. He studied Literary Theory and Comparative Literature and since 2004, his writings have appeared in various journals. In 2008 he was awarded with the IX poetry prize of the Universidad Autónoma de Madrid. Itinerarios (Amargord, 2013) is his first book.

Subhro Bandopadhyay is a poet and hispanist. He was awarded I Beca Internacional Antonio Machado de Creación Poética (2008). He has published 4 full length poetry collections and 2 chapbooks of poetry in Bengali. He currently teaches Spanish language at Instituto Cervantes, New Delhi.

www.jmi.ac.in

www.nuevadelhi.cervantes.es