ABOUT MATCH MY [TALENT]

Match My [Talent] is a platform for finding people and information from art, culture, media and entertainment. People and information here are very scattered, so access to both is limited on everybody's own network.

Traditionally, it takes a lot of time for network to increase but with Match My [Talent], we are able to go across geographical boundaries and languages faster and steadier.

We are located in the space of art, culture, media and entertainment, which is very contextual and subjective in nature.

Match My [Talent] brings a data driven approach to this nature and makes it authentic and verifiable.

The intended impact of Match My [Talent]'s work is to bring relevant visibility to people over and above their network, be it a performing artist or a client.

Also, to create access to information that is currently vested with experts or in a scattered fashion across the industry.
