The welcome speech was delivered by Prof. Devendra Kumar Dhusia, Head Dept. Of Commerce and Business Studies. He welcomed all the eminent speakers for the business conclave for sparing their valuable time from their busy schedule. The Business Conclave brought together speakers from various domains to enlighten and inspire the audience with their insights and expertise. The event provided a platform for knowledge exchange and recognition of excellence in the field of Business and Management.

Prof. Subodh Kesharwani, School of Management Studies, IGNOU, New Delhi delivered a captivating lecture, leveraging his extensive experience in the realm of management studies. His presentation not only provided valuable theoretical frameworks but also offered practical insights into contemporary business challenges and opportunities.

Dr. Bhupinder Singh, College of Vocational Studies, University of Delhi, shed light on the essential skills required by commerce graduates in today's dynamic business landscape. With a focus on vocational education, his lecture emphasized the importance of equipping students with practical competencies alongside theoretical knowledge to enhance their employability and success in the industry.

CA Mohd. Shamse Rub brought a wealth of practical expertise to the conclave, sharing valuable insights gleaned from his experiences in the field of finance and accounting. His presentation provided attendees with valuable insights into financial best practices and strategies for navigating complex business environments. The importance of integrating theoretical knowledge with practical skills for success in the business world. The evolving role of commerce graduates and the need to adapt to changing industry dynamics. Financial management strategies for optimizing business performance and sustainability.

The Business Conclave served as a catalyst for knowledge dissemination and professional growth, offering attendees a unique opportunity to learn from industry stalwarts and thought leaders. The event underscored the significance of continuous learning and adaptation in today's competitive business landscape, leaving participants inspired and empowered to drive positive change in their respective fields.

The program was followed by farewell party on the theme of PARWAAZ: "Soaring Together," symbolizing the shared journey of learning, growth, and friendship experienced by the seniors and juniors during their time at Department. The organizing committee meticulously planned every detail to ensure a touching and meaningful farewell.

The evening kicked off with a series of heartfelt speeches and reminiscences by junior students, expressing gratitude for the guidance, support, and inspiration they received from their seniors. Emotions ran high as memories of shared laughter, study sessions, and collective achievements were recalled with fondness.

A highlight of the event was the “Token of Appreciation” where juniors presented personalized gifts and mementos to each senior as a token of their appreciation and best wishes for the future.

The atmosphere was filled with nostalgia and joy as the seniors were serenaded with musical performances, dance routines, and skits dedicated to them.

In his closing remarks, by Prof. Devendra Kumar Dhusia Head appreciate the juniors for their thoughtful gesture and encouraged the seniors to carry forward the values of integrity, perseverance, and compassion they imbibed during their time at Department. The PARWAAZ farewell party concluded on a bittersweet note, with promises of staying connected and supporting each other in their future endeavours.
