CONCEPT NOTE

Globalization has connected cultures and societies, encouraging multiculturalism and diverse cultural exchanges, characterized by global movements of people goods, services, capital, technology, and cultural practices. However, this interconnectedness has also introduced challenges such as identity conflicts, socio-political tensions, mental health disparities, and environmental concerns Exposure to multiple cultures can emphasize differences, leading to identity confusion and the rise of selective cultural affiliations. Events like the COVID-19 pandemic and international conflicts highlight the global impact of local issues, while nationalist movements resist globalization. Addressing these challenges requires dialogues on psychology's role in understanding global dynamics. This conference aims to provide a platform for experts to discuss themes like identity, mental health, technology, and sustainable development, fostering cross-cultural knowledge exchange and new frameworks to address psychological challenges in a globalized world.

ABOUT JAMIA MILLIA ISLAMIA

Jamia Millia Islamia, ranked 3rd among universities in the NIRF rankings, holds an A++ grade in NAAC ratings, is an institution originally established at Aligarh in United Provinces, India in 1920 became a Central University by an act of the Indian Parliament in 1988. In Urdu, Jamia means 'University', and Millia means 'National'.

The story of its growth from a small institution in pre-independence India to a central university located in New Delhi—offering integrated education from nursery to research in specialized areas—is a saga of dedication, conviction, and vision of a people who worked against all odds and saw it growing step by step. They "built up the Jamia Millia stone by stone and sacrifice by sacrifice," said Sarojini Naidu, the nightingale of India.

By a Special Act of the Parliament, Jamia Millia Islamia was made a central university of India in December 1988. In the list of the Faculties, i.e. Education, Humanities & Languages, Natural Sciences, Social Sciences. Engineering & Technology, one more Faculty - Faculty of Law, was added in 1989.
