

Department of Tourism and Hospitality Management Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi

Vigilance Awareness Week-2022

‘Corruption Free India for a Developed Nation’

(October 31, 2022 - November 6, 2022)

As corruption is one of the social menaces to economic, political and social progress of the country, the Department of Tourism & Hospitality Management, Jamia Millia Islamia, observed “Vigilance Awareness Week-2022” (VAW-2022) as per the directives of Central Vigilance Commission from October 31, 2022 to November 6, 2022 on the theme “Corruption Free India for a Developed Nation”. In consonance, an Integrity Pledge was administered by Dr. Sarah Hussain, Head of the Department to the faculty members, staff and students to emphasize the importance of integrity in public and personal life. The pledge was towards showing the true commitment to implement the policy of ‘Zero Tolerance against Corruption’.

She iterated that the fight against corruption is the collective duty and responsibility of all the citizens of this great nation. A corruption free India is the vision shared by all of us as we progress towards a new and developed India. She also reiterated the code of ethics, ideals of integrity and accountability and strive towards embracing the values to protect the rights and interests of the society at large.

Further, the department organised various activities such as Street Play #Nukkad Natak and Poster Making Competition which culminated on two consecutive days i.e. November 3-4, 2022 in order to sensitize and make students, staff, security & other outsourced personnel and other stakeholders aware of the consequences of corrupt practices on contemporary social issues such as work-life balance, child abuse, sexual harassment against women, domestic violence and other such social affairs. The street play was enacted at the campus outside Mohibul Hasan Block, JMI. The play portrayed different aspects of corruption and broke the stereotype of corruption as mere receiving of bribes. The play highlighted that corruption is way beyond and could take place anywhere in any form. It also encouraged the audience to discourse the silence on corruption in the country. The play was indeed engaging and was well received with a huge gathering of audience of varied stature. It triggered the emotions of the audience and seemed to connect deeply as the play garnered lots of applause and cheers from everyone.

The preparations for these events which had been going on for a week justified by the performance of the students during the act as the audience felt transported in the act itself.

All the activities organised enlightened the spirits of the participants to fight against corruption and make sincere contributions to make India 'Corruption Free Nation'.

Glimpses of the activities

