

Centre for Culture, Media & Governance Jamia Millia Islamia

The Centre for Culture Media & Governance is showcasing its research activities by hosting a panel (Policy Analysis of Television Distribution in India) and two stand alone presentations at the International Association for Media and Communication Research (IAMCR) Conference, at the Hyderabad International Convention Centre (HICC), Hyderabad.

CCMG Panel

Names	Presentation	Designation
Sandeep Bhushan Vibodh Parthasarathi	Market Structure and Diversity in TV distribution: Changing perspectives in Policy thinking	Project Fellow Associate Professor & Project Co-Director
Rajat Kumar	Tariff Regulation and Access of Cable Television in India: An Analysis	Consultant
Shruti Ravi	Relevant Markets in the Cable and DTH Market: A Case Law and Policy Formulated Opinion	Project Associate
Susan Koshy	Tracing the Legislative Discourse around Digitization of Cable Distribution	Project Associate

Time: 19th July, 2014

Venue: Room MR2

Vibodh Parthasarathi, Associate Professor

Television Business in a network era as part of the panel, Locating the Indian Media within the New Economy

Time: 18th July, 2014

Venue: MR 2.02

Arshad Amanullah, Project Coordinator, Tracking Access under Digitalization Transformations in the Urdu Media Field as part of the panel, Journalism and Journalists in times of Political and Social Change

Time: 17th July, 2014

Venue: MR 1.07