SUPER SEPTEMBER SAGA

(27TH – 30TH SEPTEMBER, 2021)

EVENT REPORT

“Super September Saga” was organised during September 2021 on the occasion of International Tourism Day, which culminated on 27th, 29th and 30th September with the active participation of students, faculty members and administrative staff under the supervision of Dr. Sarah Hussain, Head, Department of Tourism and Hospitality Management, and Dr. Nusrat Yasmeen, Event Coordinator.

The responsibility of organising the event was given to the students of Bachelor of Hotel Management, 7th Semester and their respective faculty members. This initiative was taken to help the students understand how an event is organised as well as learning key dynamics of event management. The purpose of celebrating World Tourism Day is to foster awareness among the global community of tourism's social, cultural, political, and economic value and the contribution the sector can make in reaching the Sustainable Development Goals. An online event was conducted to mark the conclusion of World Tourism Day, where several activities were conducted and winners were declared for different competitions like Quiz Competition, Best Out of Waste competition, Cooking Competition and Short Video Clip Competition. The competition saw the participation of students from various Departments of the University. Fair judgement, honesty and transparency were one of its focuses. Along with knowledge, it was also taken care that it is fun-filled and engages the audience. Surely, it was test time for the management skills of the students and they all cleared it with flying colours.

Each event had its own Chief Guests, faculty, participants, attendees and specialities. We feel proud to inform you that the "SUPER SEPTEMBER SAGA" event was a success and prouder to announce that it was managed by our enthusiastic students.

EVENT INSIGHTS

Opening Ceremony – Day 1

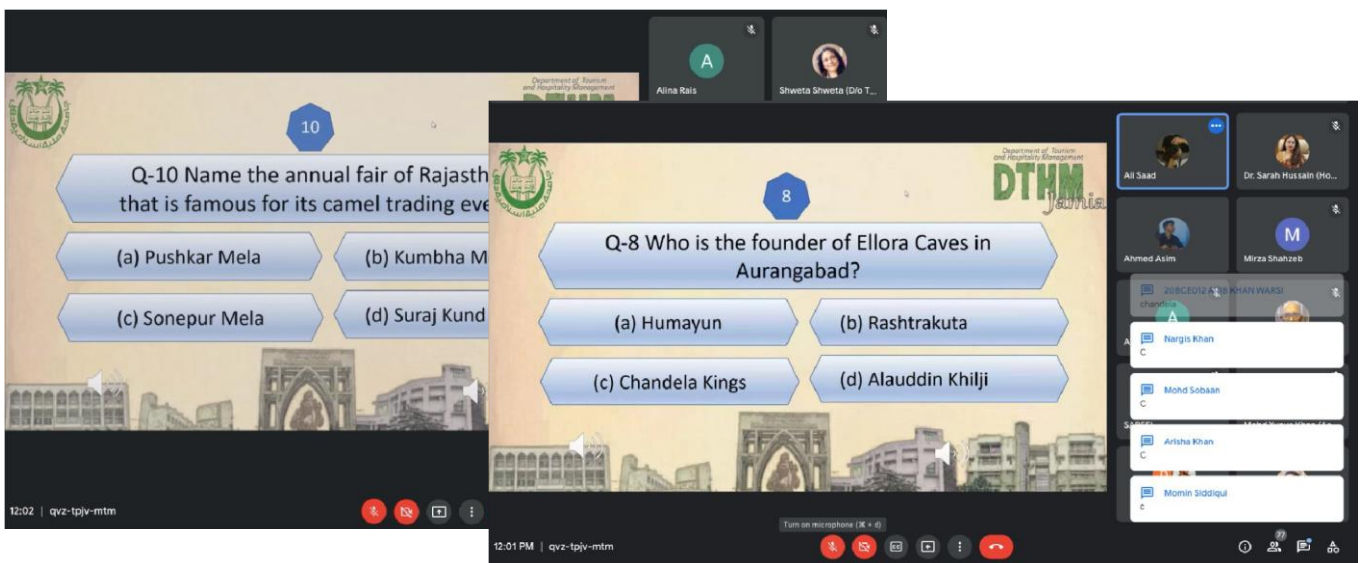

The purpose of Celebrating World Tourism Day is to foster awareness among the global community of tourism's social, cultural, political, and economic value and the contribution the sector can make in reaching the Sustainable Development Goals. Our online event was conducted on 27th September 2021 from 11:00 AM to mark the onset of celebrations for World Tourism Day, where several activities were conducted like welcome address from Dr. Sarah Hussain - HoD, a Speech from the Chief guest of Opening Ceremony, Mr. R.K Suman, an address by Prof. Nimit Choudhary and Alumini of the Department - Mirza Shahzeb Baig (Ex-VP, Subject Association). This event was followed by our main highlight of the occasion "Tourism Twisters Quiz". After that a video showing insights into the capital city, Delhi was presented, this video was made by the students of our department. In the end, to provide a treat to the audiences as a gesture of thanks for attending the event, a quiz was organised called "Kaun Banega Traveller". The competition saw the participation of students from various Departments of the University.

For Audience's Engagement & Entertainment

A small quiz show also took place for the audience while the participants were busy with the quiz competition. Since a good fraction was participating in tourism twisters it was very important to entertain our audience and engage in the event. The audience was full of energy and their engagement in the session was commendable. A whole different set of questions and rules were made especially for our wonderful audience. Our focus was to make them enjoy the event and we tried our level best to satisfy them.

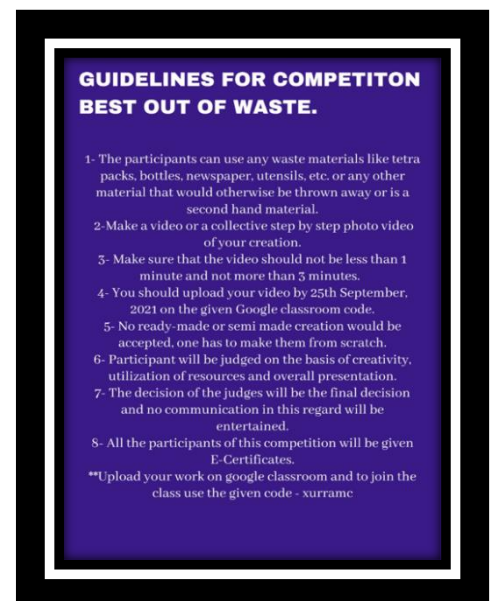

SUPER SEPTEMBER SAGA - DAY 2

BEST OF OUT OF WASTE COMPETITION

This event was organised under the guidance of faculty members, Mr Yunus Khan and Mr Mudassir Khan. Right from conceptualising, planning, conducting and organizing the event, students actively participated in designing posters, looking after the registration, designing certificates, hosting, reporting, making guidelines and learning key dynamics of event management. The core objective of the programme was to create awareness about cleanliness and managing wastes as well as their negative impact on nature.

To bring out the creative expression of the students and also to gauge their awareness quotient The Department of Tourism and Hospitality Management celebrated World Tourism week from 27th September to 30th October. Best out of waste is one such craft which follows this environmental - friendly principle and at the same time creates useful and picture objects out of waste products. To make students aware of uses of waste material, and to give them a lesson on reducing waste to save our future, a “Best out of waste” competition was organised by the Department Of Tourism and Hospitality Management on 29th October 2021 at 3:00 pm. In today’s world recycling has a very important place. It explored and encouraged creativity in students and offered them a platform to showcase their skills. It also inspired students to think creatively.

The work of the participants was shown to the audience through a compiled video of all the participants. The activity kept the students engaged and it was organised to explore and encourage creativity in students and offer them a platform to showcase their skills. The participants introduced themselves in front of the audience and judges and explained their best out of waste products along with sharing their thoughts on the same. The artistic endeavour, hard work, creativity, and innovative ideas were highly appreciated by everyone.

JUDGING CRITERIA: The participants were judged on creativity, utilisation of resources, artistic composition and design, the utility of the product and overall presentation.
