

CENTENARY YEAR CELEBRATION DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY, JMI

CELEBRATING DIVERSITY- PLURAL EPISTEMOLOGIES AND LIFE WORLDS

Online Lecture Series- 9

The Educational Challenges in Locating Diversity and Uniqueness in our Collective Life.

Prof. Mohammad Talib

21st November 2020

(Saturday)

4:00pm

<https://meet.google.com/tqm-iuge-qjq>

Moderator - Prof. Azra Abidi

Rapporteur and Vote of Thanks- Ms. Shah Khatoon

Professor Mohammad Talib is teaching Anthropology of Muslim Societies in the University of Oxford. Prior to joining Oxford, he taught in the Department of Sociology, Jamia Millia Islamia (New Delhi) from 1979 to 2001.

His area of research includes Muslim societies, social and cultural Anthropology of Islam, Sufism, and Madrasa Education.

- His monograph is titled: Writing Labour: Stone Quarry Workers in Delhi (2010).
 - He is currently working on his book titled, Mythicizing Islam in Global Interventions in the contemporary world.
-