

Centenary Year Celebrations

Department of Sociology Lecture Series

Celebrating Diversity: Plural Epistemologies and Lifeworlds

topic

Celebrating Architecture of Plural Lifeworlds

Speaker: Gauri Bharat

Gauri Bharat is an architect working on architectural history of everyday life and built environments that shape individual and collective lives of people. She investigates architectural production as material, aesthetic, and cultural practice. She has published 'In Forest, Field, and Factory: Adivasi Habitations Through Twentieth Century India' (SAGE - Yoda Press 2019). She heads the Postgraduate Program in Architectural History and Theory at CEPT University, Ahmedabad.

Moderator: Dr. Kulwinder Kaur

Coordinator: Dr. Shareena Banu

Rapporteur and Vote of Thanks:

Ms. Asmita Dubey

16.10.2020, 4 PM

<https://meet.google.com/pcd-styy-zex>