Jogwa - The Awakening (Marathi: जोगवा) is a Marathi film directed by Rajiv Patil. The film received five National Film awards. The base of the movie is about the DEVDAASI tradition in southern Maharashtra & Karnataka. Suli, the main character of the film finds her life torn apart when she is forcefully made to serve the local deity. When she meets Tayappa, who is also victim of the same fate, they find solace in one another.
