Program Manager of Praja Foundation

ABOUT PRAJA FOUNDATION

Praja Foundation is a non-partisan voluntary organisation which empowers the citizen to participate in governance by providing knowledge and enlisting people's participation. Praja aims to provide ways, in which the citizen can get politically active and involved beyond the ballot box, thus promoting transparency and accountability. Praja Foundation works towards four core sectors in Delhi and Mumbai's development and issues faced by Delhiets and Aam Mumbaikar namely: Education, Health, Civic and Crime, and publishes regular reports on the same. This mainly involves working with the elected representatives and the administration.

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

This Workshop is conceptualised by Praja Foundation. This workshop aims to enable accountability and transparency in the governance for which involving citizens is essential, especially the young generation. Praja Foundation believes that effective governance transpires through engaged and informed citizens. Hence they are conducting workshop on Urban Local Governance to build students' capacity by providing them knowledge on Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD), its departments and three tier governance of India. The workshop offers students the following benefits associated with it:

Capacity Building

Through the workshop, students would learn about the internal working of the government.

Accountability

By learning and understanding the working of the government, students can hold the government accountable.

Participatory Governance

To improve the governance, citizens need to participate and take an active role and work in synergy with the executives and legislatives.

New Career Opportunities

Students who are motivated to work on urban governance can find job avenues with Praja Foundation.

Motivation

For students it'll be a platform to explore their motivation and drive for future endeavors.

Note for Students: Students are advised to bring their laptops.
