The Department of Economics, Jamia Millia Islamia (JMI), in collaboration with Indian Society for Ecological Economics (INSEE) organized a Panel Discussion on “Demand-side Solutions for Mitigating Climate Change” by authors of Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC) Assessment Report 6 on June 5, 2023, on MS Team platform as part of Celebration of World Environment Day.

The eminent panellists were Leila Niamir (Research Scholar with Transformative Institutional and Social Solutions Research Group and Sustainable Service Systems Research Group at International Institute for Applied Systems Analysis, Austria) and Keigo Akimoto (Group Leader, Systems Analysis Group and Chief Researcher, Research Institute of Innovative Technology for the Earth, and Specially Appointed Professor, Institute of Innovative Research, Tokyo Institute of Technology, Japan). The event was moderated by Joyashree Roy (Founder Director, Centre on South and South East Asia Multidisciplinary Applied Research Network on Transforming Societies of Global South, Asian Institute of Technology, Thailand, and member, INSEE).

The programme was co-chaired by Prof. Asheref Illiyan, Head, Dept. of Economics, JMI and Nilanjan Ghosh, Director, Centre for New Diplomacy and Observer Research Foundation, Kolkata, and President, INSEE. Prof. Nandan Nawn, Dept. of Economics, JMI and member, INSEE was the coordinator of the programme.

Dr. Ghosh in his introductory address emphasized that climate change is more of a developmental and less of an environmental problem. He advocated transdisciplinary approaches through demand side mitigation for addressing the problem.

Prof. Roy provided an introduction to the reports by IPCC, including the last one on 1.5°C. She mentioned that for the first time, demand side measures were included in the IPCC Assessment Reports that has multiple co-benefits. She emphasized on the inequality aspects of energy consumption—how high socio-economic status contributes to much higher emission than by those who are having low socio-economic status.

Dr. Niamir identified three sets of factors towards demand-side mitigation: socio-cultural, infrastructural design, and technological. For each, she provided detailed explanation along with examples on reduction of energy use. Examples were taken from possibilities of digitalization, sharing economy and circular economy, under each of the three factors.

Prof. Akimoto shared possible energy demand reductions across regions, worldwide, in case of adoption of steps such as ride-and-car sharing, virtual meeting and teleworking, e- publication, recycling and reduction in apparels, among others.

The panel discussion was followed by a thought provoking question answer session. Vote of thanks was offered by Prof. Nawn, Department of Economics, JMI.

In another event, the Centre for the Study of Social Exclusion and Inclusive Policy, JMI organised a Plantation Drive to celebrate the World Environment Day 2023 at the Lawn of the Noam Chomsky Complex, Gate No. 19, JMI. The drive was launched by the Hony. Director Prof. Arvinder Ansari, Faculty members, Staff and Students of the Centre in order to create a green, clean and healthy environment in and around campus which will go a long way in making the campus environment friendly. It will also help to sensitize students towards the need to preserve our environment and ecology. Most of the plants planted on the occasion were herbal plants which would have motivated the students to keep their surroundings green and clean and also understand the importance of the herbal plants.

All the students who joined the event expressed their interest in the event and suggested that such drives should be organized at regular intervals in order to create a healthy environment. With this all felt inner peace for something good for the environment.

The programme was actively and enthusiastically attended by faculty members Prof. Nandan Nawn, Dr. Nadeem, Dr. Shadab, Mr. Aquib, Prof. Naseeb Ahmad and students from different Departments of the university.

Jamia Millia Islamia (JMI), the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) and the National Stock Exchange of India Limited (NSE) jointly organized an Investor Awareness Program and Interactive Investor Quiz on February 7, 2024 at Conference Hall, Dr. Zakir Hussain Library, JMI.

The keynote speakers were Amit Mawai, Assistant General Manager, SEBI, Joginder Singh, Regulatory Head, NSE North and Mohd. Izhar, Deputy Manager, NSE North. Prof Mohd. Muslim Khan, Dean, Faculty of Social Sciences, JMI graced the occasion as Chief Guest and Prof. Shahid Ashraf, Deptt. of Economics and former Officiating Vice Chancellor, JMI acted as the discussant.

Prof. Asheref Illiyan, Nodal Officer, SEBI Investor Awareness Program at JMI and Head of the Department of Economics in his opening remarks highlighted the importance of such awareness programmes and emphasised that capital market investment has opportunities, challenges and risks associated with it and hence, investor awareness is highly imperative. He thanked SEBI and NSE for choosing JMI for this joint programme. Prof. Illiyan also expressed a deep sense of gratitude to Prof. Eqbal Hussain, Vice Chancellor, JMI for his support and guidance.

Prof. Mohd. Muslim Khan, pointed out that people should be informed and aware before exposing to financial markets. Without adequate knowledge and skills one can get into a trap, he added. He complimented JMI, SEBI and NSE for organising such a wonderful programme.

More Details

Joginder Singh started the keynote speech by making a general awareness of investor participation among the audience. He then spoke about the importance of financial planning and the need to make investment decisions properly and timely. He spoke in detail about the basic financial instruments and various categories of assets and their working mechanisms. He devoted time to taking inputs and doubts from the audience, thus making the event more interactive.

Amit Mawai, Assistant General Manager of SEBI, emphasised the need for a regulatory body in the spectrum of financial markets. He also spoke on the importance of investors' interest and their role in channelling financial markets. He pointed out that it is the duty of the regulatory authority to provide free and transparent information to all the stakeholders of the market. Nobody should be left behind in accessing timely and proper information. Later he quickly went through the history of SEBI, the functions, the moto, the duties and different types of security instruments and their supplementing features.

The keynote speeches were followed by an interactive quiz competition session. Special complementary gifts were presented to the participants of the quiz competition. The programme was actively and enthusiastically attended by faculty members Prof. Nandan Nawn, Dr. Nadeem, Dr. Shadab, Mr. Aquib, Prof. Naseeb Ahmad and students from different Departments of the university. New Delhi, February 20: The Department of Economics, Jamia Millia Islamia (JMI) organized its The Golden Jubilee Alumni Meet on 17th February, 2024 at the Auditorium of Faculty of Engineering & Technology of the university. More than 150 Alumni belonging to different batches from 1979 to 2023 overwhelmingly participated in the event. Many Alumni settled out of Delhi and abroad also participated online through Google meet. The event also witnessed participation of faculty members and large turnout of current batch of students.

The inaugural function commenced with Jamia Tarana which starts with "Dayar-e-Shauq Mera, Shehr-e-Aarzoo Mera.. (This is the land of my hopes..This is the land of my dreams...)". Prof. Asheref Illiyan, Head of the Department, welcomed all the guests, Faculty members, esteemed Alumni & students. He informed the audience that the Department of Economics has completed its 50 years of glorious existence. The maiden program of the Department i.e. B.A (Hons.) Economics was started in 1971-72. We celebrated the Golden Jubilee with much zeal and enthusiasm last year and this alumni meet is the last program under the Golden Jubilee Celebrations of the Department. He also showcased the performance of the Department in recent time and sketched how the Department is reaching newer heights through better Teaching-learning, research and organization of various events including Noble Laureate Lecture Series by Prof. Mohammad Yunus of Bangladesh. Prof. Illiyan thanked all the Alumni for their gracious presence and support and making this event a historic, truly golden and highly memorable.

Prof. Eqbal Hussain, Offg. Vice Chancellor, JMI and chief guest of the inaugural function, in his inaugural address underscored the role of alumni in the growth and development of its Alma Mater. He also exhorted the alumni that it is time to give back to the University as the university nurtured your talent during your studies. He highlighted that today Jamia stands among the top three universities in India along with JNU and IISc, Bangalore.

Prof. Eqbal stressed that the glorious journey of Jamia was possible because of the unmatched dedication and sacrifices of our founders and the values they inculcated among the students which continues to inspire us till date.

Prof. Mohd Muslim Khan, Dean Faculty of Social Sciences, JMI and Guest of Honour, congratulated the Department for its Golden Jubilee Celebrations. He stressed the need for mentorship by the alumni to the current batch of students. The Special guest, Prof. Tasneem Meenai, one of the oldest alumni of the Department (1977 batch) and former DSW, JMI narrated her experience during the initial years of the Department and she also mentioned that the university Tarana was composed by Mohammad Khaliq Siddiqui, who was a faculty member in the Department of Economics, JMI. Prof. Khan Masood Ahmad, Ex-Vice Chancellor, Khawja Moinuddin Chisti Urdu, Arabi-Farsi University, Lucknow, and retired Professor from the Department exposed the need for integrating more alumni to the Department. Prof. Moonis Shakeel, Alumni Coordinator proposed vote of thanks in the inaugural function.

Ice breaking sessions, mesmerizing and marvelous cultural performance such as singing, urdu poetry (Shairi), classical dance, skit & Quiz competition by Ma'shiyat Network were the peculiarity of the event. There was an all round celebration throughout the day.

Alumni shared their fond memories with the students. All the Alumni were honoured and presented with gifts by Prof. Asheref Illiyan, HoD.

New Delhi, March 14: The Department of Economics, Jamia Millia Islamia (JMI) organised the Global Conclave on Sustainable Development Goals: Progress, Challenges and Way Forward during 6-7th March 2024. The conclave started off with welcome remarks by Prof. Asheref Illiyan, Head Department of Economics, JMI and Conference Director. Prof. Partha Sen, Former Director, Delhi School of Economics delivered the Presidential address.

Prof. Sen emphasized over the conflicting objectives of the government, i.e., on the one hand Governments wish to achieve Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and on the other hand Governments also need to achieve fiscal and monetary balance. While realization of SDGs includes achieving a certain minimum level of stock variables such as public health, Nutrition , education, etc. which plays a crucial role in sustained growth of the economy. However, the need for achieving fiscal and monetary balance in every consecutive period forces the government to curtail spending and credits. While the Global North has largely solved the problem of its stock variables and is exclusively concerned about managing macro balance of flow variables, the global south continues to grapple with improving their stock variables broadly captured by human development indicators.

Dr. Rajan Sudesh Ratna, Deputy Head and Senior Economic Affairs Officer, United Nations Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific (UN-ESCAP), South and South West Asia Office, in his inaugural speech, appreciated that SDGs are relevant to and responsibility of every individual and organisation in the world. He iterated that we are far off from achieving targets for 89% of the indicators in the region as per UN-ESCAP report. While identifying the challenges countries face in achievement of SDGs, he emphasize the role of the researchers in helping governments to make evidence-based policy interventions.

Mr. Uchita De Zoysa, Chairman, Global Sustainability Solutions (GLOSS), Executive Director, Centre for Environment & Development (CED), Colombo, Sri Lanka, said that notwithstanding the slow and dissatisfactory progress, fundamental idea behind SDGs is to transform the world in terms of thinking around the global challenges and not merely to achieve targets by countries.

After the inaugural session, Ist Plenary session began with highly reputed speakers such as Prof. Achin Chakraborty, Former Director, Institute of Development Studies Kolkata, Prof. Santosh Mehrotra, Former Chairperson, Centre for Informal Sector and Labour Studies, JNU, New Delhi and Visiting Professor, Centre for Development Economics, University of Bath, UK, Prof. Kavita Rao, Director, National Institute of Public Finance and Policy (NIPFP) and Dr. Tauhidur Rahman, Founding Director, Initiative for Agency and Development (IFAD) and Associate Professor, Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics, University of Arizona, United States of America (USA). Prof. Achin laid emphasis on utilising latest advances in professional economic theory to analyse issues that are highly relevant for SDG related target indicators. Prof. Santosh Mehrotra weaved coherent story arguing that if human development precedes economic growth then we are more likely to achieve SDGs goals on poverty and inequality. Prof. Kavita Rao underscored the difficulty in achieving a uniform definition and measurement of spending that are relevant to SDGs. Dr. Tauhidur Rahman tried to rationalise gender dimensions in achievement of SDGs. He argued that India has been lacking in progress on Female Labour force participation primarily because we have not been able to address the gender norms that hinder the autonomy and agency of women.

Prof. Praveen Jha, JNU chaired the second Plenary session of the conclave. Prof. Arun Kumar, Former Professor, JNU, Prof. Joyashree Roy, Director-SMARTS Center, Asian Institute of Technology (AIT), Thailand. Prof. Srijit Mishra, Indira Gandhi Institute of Development Research (IGIDR), were speakers in the session. The focus of the session was on climate change and health related issues in sustainability. Prof. Arun Kumar hinted towards the current state of the global political economy that acts as a formidable impediment to sustainable development. In similar mode, Prof. Srijit Mishra using evidence from his recent publication in Current Science global reaction to COVID asserted that response to global poly crises such as COVID should have solid evidence base and be proportional to the crisis.

Prof. Joyashree's presentation tried to examine the workability for manual workers given the ambient temperature and humidity in metro cities of India. She found that more than 90% of days in any given year remain under non-workable zone until extreme solutions such as Air conditioning.

जामिया ने किया सतत विकास लक्ष्यों (एसडीजी) पर ग्लोबल कॉन्वलेव का आयोजन

नई दिल्ली। जामिया मिल्लिया इस्लामिया के अर्थशास्त्र विभाग ने 6-7 मार्च 2024 के दौरान सतत विकास लक्ष्य: प्रगति, चुनौतियाँ और आगे की रणनीति पर वैश्विक कॉन्वलेव का आयोजन किया। कॉन्वलेव की शुरुआत अर्थशास्त्र विभाग के अध्यक्ष प्रोफेसर अशरफ इलियान की स्वागत टिप्पणी के साथ हुई। दिल्ली स्कूल ऑफ इकोनॉमिक्स के पूर्व निदेशक प्रोफेसर पार्थ सेन ने अध्यक्षीय भाषण दिया। सेन ने सरकार के परस्पर विरोधी उद्देश्यों पर जोर दिया, यानी, एक तरफ सरकारें सतत विकास लक्ष्य (एसडीजी) हासिल करना चाहती हैं और दूसरी तरफ सरकारों को राजकोषीय और मौद्रिक संतुलन हासिल करने की भी जरूरत है। जबकि एसडीजी की प्राप्ति में सार्वजनिक स्वास्थ्य, पोषण, शिक्षा इत्यादि जैसे स्टॉक चर का एक निश्चित न्यूनतम स्तर प्राप्त करना शामिल है जो अर्थव्यवस्था के निरंतर

विकास में महत्वपूर्ण भूमिका निभाता है। हालाँकि, हर लगातार अवधि में राजकोषीय और मौद्रिक संतुलन हासिल करने की आवश्यकता सरकार को खर्च और ऋण में कटौती करने के लिए मजबूर करती है। जबकि ग्लोबल नॉर्थ ने अपने स्टॉक वेरिएबल्स की समस्या को बड़े पैमाने पर हल कर लिया है और विशेष रूप से प्रवाह वेरिएबल्स के मैक्रो संतुलन के प्रबंधन के बारे में चिंतित है, ग्लोबल साउथ अपने स्टॉक वेरिएबल्स में सुधार के लिए संघर्ष कर रहा है जो मोटे तौर पर मानव विकास संकेतकों द्वारा कैप्चर किए गए हैं। एशिया और प्रशांत के लिए संयुक्त राष्ट्र आर्थिक और सामाजिक आयोग (यूएन-ईएससीएपी), दक्षिण और दक्षिण पश्चिम एशिया कार्यालय के उप प्रमुख और बरिष्ठ आर्थिक मामलों के अधिकारी डॉ. राजन सुदेश रत्न ने अपने उद्घाटन भाषण में इस बात की सराहना की कि एसडीजी

और दुनिया के प्रत्येक व्यक्ति और संगठन की जिम्मेदारी प्रासंगिक हैं। उन्होंने दोहराया कि हम यूएन-ईएससीएपी रिपोर्ट के अनुसार क्षेत्र में 89% संकेतकों के लक्ष्य हासिल करने से बहुत दूर हैं। एसडीजी की उपलब्धि में देशों के सामने आने वाली चुनौतियों की पहचान करते हुए, उन्होंने सरकारों को साथ्य आधारित नीतिगत हस्तक्षेप करने में मदद करने में शोधकर्ताओं की भूमिका पर जोर दिया। श्री उचिता डी जोयसा, अध्यक्ष, ग्लोबल सस्टेनेबिलिटी सोल्यूशंस (जीएलओएसएस), कार्यकारी निदेशक, सेंटर फॉर एनवायरनमेंट एंड एम्प; डेवलपमेंट (सीईडी), कोलंबो, श्रीलंका ने कहा कि धीमी और असंतोषजनक प्रगति के बावजूद, एसडीजी के पीछे मूल विचार वैश्विक चुनौतियों के बारे में सोचने के मामले में दुनिया को बदलना है, न कि केवल देशों द्वारा लक्ष्य हासिल करना।

उद्घाटन सत्र के बाद, पहला पूर्ण सत्र प्रतिष्ठित वक्ताओं जैसे प्रो. अचिन चक्रवर्ती, पूर्व निदेशक, इंस्टीट्यूट ऑफ डेवलपमेंट स्टडीज कोलकाता, प्रो. संतोष मेहरोत्रा, पूर्व अध्यक्ष, सेंटर फॉर इनफॉर्मल सेक्टर एंड लेबर स्टडीज, जेएनयू, नई दिल्ली और विजिटिंग प्रोफेसर, सेंटर फॉर डेवलपमेंट इकोनॉमिक्स, यूनिवर्सिटी ऑफ बाथ, यूके, प्रोफेसर कविता राव, निदेशक, नेशनल इंस्टीट्यूट ऑफ पब्लिक फाइनेंस एंड पॉलिसी (एनआईपीएफपी) और डॉ. तौहिदुर रहमान, संस्थापक निदेशक, इनिशिएटिव फॉर एजेंसी एंड डेवलपमेंट (आईएफएडी) और एसोसिएट प्रोफेसर, कृषि और संसाधन अर्थशास्त्र विभाग, एरिजोना विश्वविद्यालय, संयुक्त राज्य अमेरिका (यूएसए) के साथ शुरू हुआ। प्रोफेसर अचिन ने एसडीजी से संबंधित लक्ष्य संकेतकों के लिए अत्यधिक प्रासंगिक मुद्दों का

JMI organizes Global Conclave on Sustainable Development Goals

NEW DELHI, OPEN SEARCH

JMI organizes Global Conclave on Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) The Department of Economics, Jamia Millia Islamia (JMI) organised the Global Conclave on Sustainable Development Goals: Progress, Challenges and Way Forward during 6th March 2024. The conclave started off with welcome remarks by Prof. Ashraf Iliyan, Head Department of Economics, JMI and Conference Director. Prof. Partha Sen, Former Director, Delhi School of Economics delivered the Presidential address. Prof. Sen emphasized over the conflicting objectives of the governments, i.e., on the one hand Governments wish to achieve Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and on the other hand Governments also need to achieve fiscal and monetary balance. While realization of SDGs includes achieving a certain minimum level of stock variables such as public health, Nutrition, education, etc. which plays a crucial role in sustained growth of the economy.

However, the need for achieving fiscal and monetary balance in every consecutive period forces the government to curtail spending and credits. While the Global North has largely solved the problem of its stock variables and is exclusively concerned about managing macro balance of flow variables, the global south continues to grapple with improving their stock variables broadly captured by human development indicators. Dr. Rajan Sudesh Rana, Deputy Head and Senior Economic Affairs Officer, United Nations Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific (UN-ESCAP), South and South West Asia Office, in his inaugural speech, appreciated that SDGs are relevant to and responsibility of every individual and organisation in the world. He iterated that we are far off from achieving targets for 89% of the indicators in the region as per UNESCAP report.

While identifying the challenges countries face in achievement of SDGs, he emphasize the role of the researchers in helping governments to make evidence-based policy interventions. Mr. Uchita De Zoysa, Chairman, Global Sustainability Solutions (GLOSS), Executive Director, Centre for Environment & Development (CED), Colombo, Sri Lanka, said that notwithstanding the slow and disatisfactory progress, fundamental idea behind SDGs is to transform the world in terms of thinking around the global challenges and not merely to achieve targets by countries. After the inaugural session, 1st Plenary session began with highly reputed speakers such as Prof. Achin Chakraborty, Former Director, Institute of Development Studies Kolkata, Prof. Santosh Mehrotra, Former Chairperson, Centre for Informal Sector and Labour Studies, JNU, New Delhi and Visiting Professor, Centre for Development Economics, University of Bath, UK, Prof. Kavita Rao, Director, National Institute of Public Finance and Policy (NIPFP) and Dr. Tauhidur Rahman, Founding Director, Initiative for Agency and Development (IFAD) and Associate Professor, Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics, University of Arizona, United States of America (USA). Prof. Achin laid emphasis on utilising latest advances in professional economic theory to analyse issues that are highly relevant for SDG related target indicators.

Prof. Santosh Mehrotra weaved coherent story arguing that if human development precedes economic growth then we are more likely to achieve SDGs goals on poverty and inequality. Prof. Kavita Rao underscored the difficulty in achieving a uniform definition and measurement of spending that are relevant to SDGs. Dr. Tauhidur Rahman tried to rationalise gender dimensions in achievement of SDGs. He argued that India has been lacking in progress on Female Labour force participation primarily because we have not been able to address the gender norms that hinder the autonomy and agency of women. Prof. Praveen Jha, JNU chaired the second Plenary session of the conclave. Prof. Arun Kumar, Former Professor, JNU, Prof. Jayashree Roy, Director, SMARTS Center, Asian Institute of Technology (AIT), Thailand, Prof.

Srijit Mishra, Indra Gandhi Institute of Development Research (IGDIR), were speakers in the session. The focus of the session was on climate change and health related issues in sustainability. Prof. Arun Kumar hinted towards the current state of the global political economy that acts as a formidable impediment to sustainable development. In similar mode, Prof. Srijit Mishra using evidence from his recent publication in Current Science global reaction to COVID asserted that response to global poly crises such as COVID should have solid evidence base and be proportional to the crisis. Prof. Jayashree's presentation tried to examine the workability for manual workers given the ambient temperature and humidity in metro cities of India.

New Delhi, March 12: The Department of Economics, Jamia Millia Islamia (JMI), in its quest to contribute to the society, organized several skill development workshops free of cost over the last couple of years. The most recent workshop was on "Excel as a Tool for Research Enhancement", for PhD students. It was organized under the aegis of the Subject Association of Department of Economics.

Prof Asheref Illiyan, Head, Department of Economics, JMI welcomed the participants and highlighted the importance of Excel software for data management, processing and basic to advance level quantitative analysis. He observed that despite its utility most the students have limited knowledge or lack of awareness on the uses of Excel. The purpose of this workshop is to fill that gap. He thanked Prof. Moonnis Shakeel, the organizing secretary and resource person of the workshop for coming forward and organizing this important workshop for the benefit of research scholars.

Prof .Moonnis started the hands-on session explaining how the students can effectively use excel to enhance their efficiency in research. The workshop covered various topics such as keyboard shortcuts for effective and efficient navigation, chartless visualizations, chart creation etc. Close to 80 PhD scholars registered for the workshop. The participants came from various Departments/Centers of JMI such as Faculty of Architecture, Political Science, Educational Studies, International Studies, Economics and also from Delhi University, Rajasthan University etc. The participants appreciated the content and delivery style of the workshop. The workshop ended with a positive note and participants gave positive feedback. The Department of Economics will continue to organize such skill development workshops in future also.

About MSC BFA Programme

The MSc BFA is a two-year master's programme under the Department of Economics of Jamia Millia Islamia. The programme focuses on changing the needs of the analytics industry and improving the analytical skills of the students. Under this programme, students are trained in using software like R, Python, Stata, SQL, and PowerBI for data management. Further, students are trained in modern tools like Machine Learning and AI under the programme. In short, this programme enables employers to get skilled employees in a short span of time.

To provide an industry immersive experience the 4th-semester students are engaged in industry internship/capstone projects to enable course participants to brush up on their skills gained in the classroom and be ready to conquer the corporate world, said Professor Asheref Illiyan, Head of the Department of Economics, JMI.

MSc BFA On Campus Placement Drive

The department has further started an on-campus placement drive for MSc BFA students. Several good companies have visited and recruited students via on-campus placement drives. Interestingly, some new companies have also shared their willingness to hire MSc BFA students to be a part of their organisation. Prof. Illiyan expressed his gratitude to the Vice Chancellor and Registrar, JMI for the excellent support for the smooth running of the course. He also thanked Dr. Vasim Akram, course Coordinator, MSc BFA and all the faculty members of the Department and University Placement Cell for their support.

Jamia Millia Islamia's MSc Banking and Financial Analytics Program Achieves 100% Internship Placement

NIBEDITA SPEAKS / 17 APRIL 2024

NEWS

The Department of Economics at Jamia Millia Islamia University has achieved a remarkable milestone with its MSc Banking and Financial Analytics (BFA) program.

In a testament to its commitment to academic excellence and industry relevance, the fourth batch of MSc BFA students (2022-2024) has secured 100% internship placement.

The internship placements for the MSc BFA students encompass a diverse range of esteemed institutions, including nationalized banks such as Indian Bank and renowned corporate entities like Genpact, CRISIL Ltd, GFK, Acxiom Consulting, and RevFin. This achievement underscores the program's efficacy in nurturing industry-ready professionals equipped with the requisite skills and knowledge to excel in the dynamic landscape of banking and financial analytics.

What sets the MSc BFA program apart is its unique emphasis on providing students with an immersive industry experience throughout all four semesters of the course. By devoting the entire duration of the program to industry internships and capstone projects, the Department ensures that students have ample opportunities to apply theoretical concepts learned in the classroom to real-world scenarios. This hands-on approach not only enhances their practical skills but also cultivates a deep understanding of industry practices and trends.

Launched in 2019, the MSc BFA program has quickly garnered acclaim for its innovative curriculum that is meticulously designed to meet the evolving demands of the analytics industry. The program's content is carefully aligned with the latest industry trends, ensuring that students receive cutting-edge training in areas such as applied finance, advanced statistics, and data science.

Central to the program's success is its comprehensive approach to skill development, which encompasses a wide array of tools and technologies essential for analytics professionals. Students receive rigorous training in popular software packages such as R, Python, Stata, SQL, and PowerBI for tasks ranging from data management to quantitative modeling and visualization. Moreover, they are exposed to modern data science techniques including machine learning and artificial intelligence, equipping them with the expertise needed to tackle complex analytical challenges.

New Delhi, April 23: Earth Day was celebrated at various departments and schools of Jamia Millia Islamia (JMI) on 22nd April, 2024. As part of the celebration at the Department of Economics, JMI the Subject Association of the department organized a series of talks by the faculty members on Earth Day. A poster competition was also held in the model class room of the Department. The event was enthusiastically attended by students of B.A. (Hons) Economics, M.A. Economics, MSc Banking and Financial Analytics and B.A programme of JMI.

The Earth Day Celebration was kick started with a key address by Prof. Asheref Illiyan, Head, Department of Economics, JMI. He informed the audience that Earth Day is celebrated every year on 22nd April to create awareness on environmental issues surrounding the planet. He narrated the genesis and progress of Earth Day Celebration in the world.

Every year the Earth day is celebrated on different themes related to environmental issues. This year the theme of the Earth Day celebration is "Planet Versus Plastics", highlighting the urgent need to eliminate plastics from our planet which have disastrous environmental consequences on the environment. End of this year, the UN is supposed to come out with a plastic ban treaty that will stipulate 60 percentage reductions in plastic production in the world by 2040. Students and faculty impressed upon their commitment to minimize the use of plastics in everyday life.

Dr. Vasim Akram, Dr. Md. Zakaria Siddiqui, Dr.Md Kashif and Dr. Shadab Khan, faculty members of the Department who spoke in the event , highlighted the adverse implications of pressing economic goals without giving due regard to ecological and social sustainability. The programme was concluded with a poster making competition by the participants. The winners of the poster making competition are: First Prize: Ms Hissa M Naqvin and Maryam Khan (B. A. Hons. IV semester), second prize: Aliza Fatima and Syed Adeeba (B. A. Hons. IV semester) , third prize: Md Dilshad (B. A. Hons. Earth Day was observed across departments and schools of Jamia Millia Islamia (JMI) recently. At the Department of Economics, JMI, the Subject Association arranged talks by faculty members and a poster competition in the model classroom, drawing students from various programs.

The celebration commenced with a speech by Prof. Asheref Illiyan, Head of the Department, who emphasized Earth Day's purpose and its global progression.

This year's theme, 'Planet Versus Plastics,' underscored the imperative to reduce plastic usage, aligning with the impending UN plastic ban treaty targeting a 60% reduction in production by 2040.

Faculty members, including Dr. Vasim Akram, Dr. Md. Zakaria Siddiqui, Dr. Md. Kashif, and Dr. Shadab Khan, emphasized the repercussions of prioritizing economic goals over ecological and social sustainability. The event concluded with a poster-making competition, with winners recognized from various semesters.

Meanwhile, Earth Day activities also extended to JMI schools. Mushir Fatma Nursery School featured posters by students and teachers, while events at Jamia Middle School and Jamia Senior Secondary School emphasised environmental protection, forest conservation, and Earth Day's significance.

New Delhi, May 3: The Department of Economics, Jamia Millia Islamia (JMI) celebrated its annual academic and cultural fest known as 'Ecocracy' on 29th April, 2024 with much fervor and enthusiasm. 3D Modeling competition on the theme "Imagining A Sustainable Future", Wall Painting Competition on the theme "Global Economy", Chess, Video Gaming, Treasure Hunt, Pictionary competitions were some of the attractions of Ecocracy 2024.

An Extempore competition was also held which saw participation from many Departments and centres of JMI. Extempore speech was centred around the topics such as 1. Is artificial intelligence a threat or an opportunity? 2. The changing landscape of education in India (New Education Policy 2020) 3. The potential of startups in driving India's economic growth. 4. Political corruption and its effects on economic development. 5. Climate change and economic policy: strategies for mitigation and adaptation. 6. The role of cryptocurrency in shaping the future of finance. 7. Income inequality: causes, consequences, and potential solutions etc. Extempore was judged by Dr. Roomy Naqvi of Department of English JMI. Ecocracy 2024 had enough academic, cultural and entertainment content.

The program started with opening remarks by Prof. Asheref Illiyan, Head, Department of Economics, JMI. He apprised the audience of the recent achievements of the Department such as number of campus placements, 100 percent internship for MSc BFA students, organization of important academic events like Global Conclave on Sustainable Development Goals, Golden Jubilee Alumni Meet and national workshop on NSS data extraction and Analysis etc.

The Chief Guest of the inaugural function was Prof. Muslim Khan, Dean Faculty of Social Sciences, JMI. He congratulated the students and Head of the Department for organizing such multi-faceted fest which are very important for the overall development of the students. He also briefly highlighted the history of JMI and its present NIRF position as 3rd ranked university in India.

Dr. Vasim Akram, student advisor said JMI is a historic institution where students get a conducive environment for learning new things, innovations, efficiency and productivity. Prof. Moonis Shakeel, Dr. Md Zakaria and Dr. Kashif spoke on the occasion and conveyed their best wishes to the programme.

The festival saw an overwhelming participation of guests, faculty members and students. More than 250 students across JMI participated in the event and it turned out to be highly memorable and enjoyable for all.

BUDGET

New Delhi: The Department of Economics, Jamia Millia Islamia (JMI) organized a Panel Discussion on the Union Budget 2024-25 on 06th August 2024, at the Model Class Room of the department. The event commenced with opening remarks by Prof. Asheref Illiyan, Head of the Department, who outlined the all-encompassing nine priorities presented by the Finance Minister in the union budget 2024-25. The distinguished panellists of the event were: Prof. Pulin B Nayak, former Professor, Delhi School of Economics, and Prof. Arun Kumar, former Professor, Centre for Economic Studies and Planning (CESP), Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU). The session was moderated by Professor N. A. Azad, former Professor, Department of Economics, JMI.

Prof. Pulin addressed the gathering with retrospection on the Indian economy's journey to a three trillion economy and commented on the current state of the economy. He flagged his concern regarding the labour market in the economy where jobs growth and real wages have been sluggish which may have contributed to widening inequality. He emphasised that the budget usually allocates insufficient funds to the health and education sectors. India conventionally spends a significantly lower share of its GDP on social sectors compared to other countries which is true for this budget as well. He highlighted reduction in funding for University Grants Commission which may adversely affect public institutions of higher education. He also argued that growth of private universities will not be able to fill these gaps as the quality control of private higher education institutions is a major issue. He also commented on quality issues in primary education in India. Prof. Pulin concluded his speech by emphasising the need for more fund allocation to social sectors like education and health etc.

The second speaker, Prof. Arun Kumar, established the context by providing an overview of the economic and political underpinnings of the current budget. He highlighted the fact that the budget usually becomes confusing for common people because it often states projected 5-year expenditure instead of the exact amount that the Government is actually planning to spend in the immediate year of the budget. Further permission for loans are also announced as part of the budget statement.

Subsequently, he elaborated that allocations in the budget are not going to help the informal sector, as most employment related announcements are mainly going to help the formal sector. It was important to keep the informal sector in consideration during the budget process as it provides employment to 75% of the non-agricultural workforce in India. With regards to fiscal consolidation Prof. Kumar highlighted that budget should have explored new sources of revenue growth instead of curbing expenditure on social sector given the high levels of inequality the country is facing. While summing up he iterated that the budget focuses on supply side policy options to boost the economy and employment but most experts indicate that Indian economy faces lack of effective demand implying that budget may not succeed in stimulating the economy.

Prof. N. A. Azad moderated the session, facilitating comments and further discussion on the panellists' presentations. He underscored that despite challenges India has advantages of the largest young population in the world and has been emerging as the best destination for foreign investment. The event concluded with a detailed question-and-answer session, where the audience raised comments, concerns, and questions.

The event was enthusiastically attended by students, research scholars, and faculty members from various departments and centres of the university. The event concluded with a formal vote of thanks proposed by Dr Zakaria Siddiqi, Associate Professor at the Department of Economics, JMI. The event was coordinated by Dr. Vasim Akram and Dr Md Kashif Khan of the Department of Economics, JMI.

The Department of Economics, Jamia Millia Islamia (JMI) proudly launched its much-anticipated "Corporate Lecture Series" on August 24, 2024 in the model class room of the Department. The inaugural lecture titled "From Campus to Corporate" was delivered by Mr. Shubham Sahay, Senior Manager at Bizmetric (a Global IT company headquartered in Texas, US) and a distinguished alumnus of JMI's Department of Economics. Mr. Sahay, who also holds an MBA from Leeds Beckett University, UK, and has had an illustrious career with HP, Ericsson, and TCS, shared invaluable insights with the students, offering a roadmap for their transition from academia to the corporate world.

The corporate lecture series is aligned with NEP 2020 and renewed focus of the Vice Chancellor of JMI, Prof. Mohammad Shakeel for corporate placement and internship for the students of JMI.

Mr. Sahay highlighted the stark contrast between campus life and corporate environments, emphasizing that the application of economics in the real world is what truly matters. He urged students to focus on developing essential skills, staying informed about industry trends, and understanding both the structure of their chosen fields and the specific skills required to excel.

Analyzing the rapidly growing analytics industry, Mr. Sahay stressed the importance of technical proficiency in tools such as Excel, SQL, R, and Python, along with the need for strong interpersonal and teamwork skills. He also underscored the value of certifications and specialized courses, noting that while academic marks are important, the ability to display learning and continuously up skill is what sets candidates apart in the eyes of recruiters.

Mr. Sahay advised students to remain tuned to the realities of life, plan strategically, and actively seek opportunities, particularly through internships. He encouraged them to work on projects and case studies, showcasing their work to potential employers as a way to stand out. He also emphasized the significance of understanding corporate culture and the importance of continuous learning for career growth. Mr. Sahay ended his interaction by urging students to research well, utilize available resources, and build strong networks to navigate the complexities of the industry successfully.

Prof. Asheref Illiyan, Head, Department of Economics, welcomed the guest and students. In his opening remarks he underscored the importance of such interaction and announced to organize more such "Corporate Lecture Series," in future. Dr. Vasim Akram and Dr. Kashif Khan were the teacher coordinators of the event. Dr. Kashif Khan provided the introductory remarks, while Dr. Md Zakaria Siddiqui proposed the vote of thanks. The event was enthusiastically attended by Dr. Malik Nadeem and Mr. Aqib (faculty members of the MSc (BFA) program, along with students from M.A Economics, MSc BFA, and BA (Hons) Economics). Gaurav Chakraborty and Mohammad Abuzar served as the student coordinators for the event.

Huge Career Opportunities in Islamic Finance Sector: Abu Dhabi Islamic Bank Official

There is a huge career and employment opportunities in the Islamic Banking and Finance sector, a top official of Abu Dhabi Islamic Bank said.

Friday September 20, 2024 5:12 PM, ummid.com News Network

Jamia Millia Islamia: There is a huge career and employment opportunities in the Islamic Banking and Finance sector, a top official of Abu Dhabi Islamic Bank said.

Ikram Rahman, Head of Product Management, Wholesale Banking Group at Abu Dhabi Islamic Bank, UAE, and a distinguished alumnus of the Department of Economics of Jamia Millia Islamia said this while delivering a special lecture on "Islamic Banking and Career Opportunities" on 14th September, 2024.

The event, organised by the Department of Economics of the Jamia, was part of the ongoing 'Corporate Lecture Series' aimed at fostering industry-academia linkages, providing students with practical knowledge and industry insights to prepare them for successful careers in the Islamic banking sector.

The lecture session began with a welcome address by Prof. Asheref Illiyan, Head of the Department of Economics, JMI, who underscored the Department's commitment to experiential learning. He elaborated on the many advantages of Islamic banking, highlighting its relevance.

Ikram Rahman opened his lecture by discussing the dilemma of banking regulation and Sharia compliance within Islamic banks. He emphasized the unique equity-based, interest-free, and profit-and-loss sharing framework of Islamic banking, recalling how it remained resilient during the global financial crisis of 2008, which had a severe impact on conventional banks.

"This demonstrated the adaptability and robustness of the Islamic banking system", he noted.

Rahman further discussed the immense global potential of Islamic banking, not only in Muslim-majority countries but also worldwide.

He highlighted how many conventional banks in non-Islamic countries are introducing Islamic banking counters to attract savings and investments in Sharia-compliant products and companies. With Islamic banking growing at over 8% annually for the past two decades, he expressed optimism about its continued growth.

He encouraged students to explore the vast employment opportunities in Islamic banking and financial sector, outlining the certifications required for proficiency in the field and opportunities for further specialization through global educational institutions.

The session saw active participation from over 65 students from the Departments of Economics, Islamic Studies, and English at JMI, along with faculty members Dr. Zakria Siddique, Dr. Nadeem, and Aqib. Following the lecture, an engaging Q&A session was held, where Mr. Rahman answered a series of thought-provoking questions from the students.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Mohammad Kashif Khan, Placement Coordinator, Department of Economics, JMI. Gaurav Chakraborty and Mohammad Abuzar served as the student coordinators for the session.

अबू धाबी इस्लामिक बैंक, यूई के उच्च अधिकारी ने जामिया में इस्लामिक बैंकिंग और कैरियर के अवसर पर विशेष व्याख्यान दिया

जर्नलिज़्म टुडे, संवाददाता

नई दिल्ली। जामिया मिल्लिया इस्लामिया के अर्थशास्त्र विभाग ने दिनांक 14 सितंबर, 2024 को अबू धाबी इस्लामिक बैंक, यूई में होलसेल बैंकिंग समूह के उत्पाद प्रबंधन के प्रमुख और अर्थशास्त्र विभाग के पूर्व प्रतिष्ठित छात्र श्रीमान इकराम रहमान द्वारा इस्लामिक बैंकिंग और कैरियर के अवसर पर एक विशेष व्याख्यान का आयोजन किया। यह कार्यक्रम चल रहे कॉर्पोरेट व्याख्यान श्रृंखला का हिस्सा था जिसका उद्देश्य उद्योग-अकादमिक संबंधों को बढ़ावा देना, छात्रों को व्यावहारिक ज्ञान एवं उद्योग की जानकारी प्रदान करना था जिससे उन्हें इस्लामिक बैंकिंग क्षेत्र में सफल कैरियर के लिए तैयार किया जा सके। सत्र की शुरुआत जामिया मिल्लिया इस्लामिया के अर्थशास्त्र विभाग के अध्यक्ष प्रो अशरफ इलियान के गर्मजोशी भरे स्वागत भाषण से हुई, जिन्होंने अनुभववात्मक शिक्षा के प्रति विभाग की प्रतिबद्धता को रेखांकित किया। उन्होंने इस्लामिक बैंकिंग के अनेक लाभों के बारे में

विस्तार से जानकारी दी और इसकी प्रासंगिकता पर रोशनी डाली। श्रीमान इकराम रहमान ने इस्लामिक बैंकों में बैंकिंग विनियमन और शरिया अनुपालन की दुविधा के बारे में चर्चा करते हुए अपने व्याख्यान की शुरुआत की। उन्होंने इस्लामिक बैंकिंग के अद्वितीय इक्विटी-आधारित, ब्याज-मुक्त एवं लाभ-हानि साझाकरण ढांचे पर बल दिया तथा वह इस बात को स्मरण करते हुए कि किस प्रकार यह 2008 के वैश्विक वित्तीय संकट के दौरान लचीला रहा, जिसका पारंपरिक बैंकों पर गंभीर असर पड़ा। उन्होंने इस बात का उल्लेख किया कि यह

इस्लामिक बैंकिंग प्रणाली की अनुकूलनशीलता और मजबूती को प्रदर्शित करता है। श्रीमान रहमान ने न केवल मुस्लिम बहुल देशों में अपितु विश्व भर में इस्लामिक बैंकिंग की अपार वैश्विक क्षमता के बारे में भी चर्चा की। उन्होंने इस बात पर रोशनी डाली कि किस प्रकार गैर-इस्लामिक देशों में अनेक पारंपरिक बैंक शरिया-अनुपालन उत्पादों तथा कंपनियों में बचत एवं निवेश को आकर्षित करने हेतु इस्लामिक बैंकिंग काउंटर शुरू कर रहे हैं। विगत दो दशकों से इस्लामिक बैंकिंग में सालाना 8% से अधिक की वृद्धि का उल्लेख

करते हुए उन्होंने इसके निरंतर विकास के बारे में आशा व्यक्त की। उन्होंने छात्रों को इस्लामिक बैंकिंग और वित्तीय क्षेत्र में रोजगार के अत्यधिक अवसरों के बारे में पता लगाने के लिए प्रोत्साहित किया और साथ ही इस क्षेत्र में दक्षता अर्जित करने के लिए आवश्यक प्रमाणपत्रों और वैश्विक शैक्षणिक संस्थानों के माध्यम से आगे की विशेषज्ञता के अवसरों की रूपरेखा तैयार की। इस सत्र में जामिया मिल्लिया इस्लामिया के अर्थशास्त्र, इस्लामिक अध्ययन तथा अंग्रेजी विभाग के 65 से अधिक छात्रों सहित संकाय सदस्यों डॉ. जकरिया सिद्दीकी, डॉ. नदीम और श्री अकीब ने सक्रिय भागीदारी की। व्याख्यान के उपरांत एक आकर्षक प्रश्नोत्तर सत्र आयोजित किया गया जिसमें श्रीमान रहमान ने छात्रों के अनेक विचारोत्तेजक प्रश्नों के उत्तर दिए। जामिया मिल्लिया इस्लामिया के अर्थशास्त्र विभाग के प्लेसमेंट समन्वयक डॉ. मोहम्मद काशिफ खान के कृतज्ञता ज्ञापन के साथ कार्यक्रम का समापन हुआ। गौरव चक्रवर्ती एवं मोहम्मद अबुजर ने सत्र के लिए छात्र समन्वयक के रूप में कार्य किया।

जामिया मिल्लिया इस्लामिया (Jamia Millia Islamia) के अर्थशास्त्र विभाग ने दिल्लीवासियों की राष्ट्रीय प्रशामक देखभाल पहल (डीएनआईपीसीएआरई) के सहयोग से विश्व हॉस्पिस और प्रशामक देखभाल दिवस (World Hospice and Palliative Care Day) मनाया। इस अवसर पर जामिया मिल्लिया इस्लामिया के सामाजिक विज्ञान संकाय के डीन कार्यालय के सम्मेलन हॉल में प्रशामक देखभाल संवेदीकरण कार्यक्रम और बुनियादी जीवन समर्थन (बीएलएस) प्रशिक्षण से युक्त एक स्वास्थ्य देखभाल संगोष्ठी का आयोजन किया गया।

विश्व हॉस्पिस और प्रशामक देखभाल दिवस (WHPCD) प्रति वर्ष अक्टूबर के दूसरे शनिवार को विश्व भर में मनाया जाता है, जिससे प्रशामक देखभाल की ज़रूरतों के साथ जी रहे लोगों के लिए वकालत करने का अवसर मिल सके। संगोष्ठी की शुरुआत जामिया मिल्लिया इस्लामिया के अर्थशास्त्र विभाग के अध्यक्ष प्रो. अशरफ़ इलियान के स्वागत भाषण से हुई। उन्होंने जागरूकता फैलाने और विश्व भर में हज़ारों असहाय, बिस्तर पर पड़े, लाइलाज बीमारी से पीड़ित, आनुवंशिक रूप से बीमार और कैंसर रोगियों की सहायता करने के लिए डब्ल्यूएचपीसीडी के महत्व पर प्रकाश डाला।

भारत में केवल 2 फीसदी लोगों को प्रशामक देखभाल की जरूरत

प्रशामक देखभाल संवेदीकरण पर सत्र का नेतृत्व डीएनआईपीसीएआरई के महासचिव और भारत सरकार के वित्त मंत्रालय के सेवानिवृत्त अधिकारी के.वी. हमजा (KV Hamza) ने किया। उन्होंने जामिया के छात्रों के लिए प्रशामक देखभाल के महत्व और इसकी प्रासंगिकता को रेखांकित किया। विशेष रूप से विश्वविद्यालय के उद्देश्यों और संयुक्त राष्ट्र के सतत विकास लक्ष्यों (एसडीजी) के संबंध में। उन्होंने प्रशामक देखभाल के प्रमुख सिद्धांतों पर विस्तार से चर्चा की और इसके महत्व पर बल देने के लिए 2008 से प्रशामक देखभाल के क्षेत्र में अपने विस्तृत अनुभव से वास्तविक जीवन के उदाहरण दिए। उन्होंने एक चौंकाने वाला आंकड़ा प्रस्तुत किया कि भारत में केवल 2% लोगों को ही प्रशामक देखभाल की आवश्यकता है, जबकि वैश्विक औसत 14% है। उन्होंने बताया कि एक अच्छी बात यह है कि भारत में केरल राज्य 60% से अधिक कवरेज के साथ समुदाय आधारित प्रशामक देखभाल के साथ पूरी दुनिया के लिए एक आदर्श के रूप में उभरा है। उन्होंने देश के अन्य हिस्सों में कवरेज और जागरूकता फैलाने की आवश्यकता को रेखांकित किया। डी.एन.आई.पी.केयर की छात्र समन्वयक सीमा प्रसाद ने आज की स्वास्थ्य सेवा प्रणाली में विशेष रूप से प्रशामक देखभाल की आवश्यकता को साझा किया और छात्रों को इस नेक काम के लिए स्वयंसेवक बनने के लिए प्रोत्साहित किया।

सीपीआर (CPR) को लेकर प्रशिक्षण

सत्र का दूसरा भाग बेसिक लाइफ सपोर्ट प्रशिक्षण पर केंद्रित था, जिसका नेतृत्व देसंथ सी. ने किया, जो डी.एन.आई.पी.केयर के स्वयंसेवक और वर्धमान महावीर मेडिकल कॉलेज और सफदरजंग अस्पताल, नई दिल्ली में नर्सिंग अधिकारी हैं। उन्होंने प्रतिभागियों को आवश्यक प्राथमिक चिकित्सा तकनीकों, विशेष रूप से कार्डियोपल्मोनरी रिससिटेशन (सी.पी.आर.) के बारे में प्रशिक्षित किया, जो सत्र का मुख्य आकर्षण था। उन्होंने यह दिखाया कि किस प्रकार सी.पी.आर. आपातकाल के दौरान जीवन रक्षक हो सकता है। छात्रों और संकाय सदस्यों दोनों को मार्गदर्शन के अंतर्गत सी.पी.आर. का अभ्यास करने का अवसर मिला। अर्थशास्त्र के स्नातक और स्नातकोत्तर छात्रों ने सत्र में उत्साहपूर्वक भाग लिया। कार्यक्रम का समापन डॉ. काशिफ खान द्वारा प्रस्तावित धन्यवाद ज्ञापन से हुआ। डॉ. जकारिया सिद्दीकी, डॉ. वसीम अकरम और डॉ. काशिफ खान ने कार्यक्रम का समन्वय किया।

विश्व हॉस्पिस और प्रशामक देखभाल दिवस हर वर्ष अक्टूबर के दूसरे शनिवार को विश्वभर में मनाया जाता है. इसका उद्देश्य उन लोगों के लिए जागरूकता फैलाना है जो गंभीर बीमारियों से जूझ रहे हैं और जिनके लिए प्रशामक देखभाल की आवश्यकता होती है.

कार्यक्रम की शुरुआत जामिया मिल्लिया इस्लामिया के अर्थशास्त्र विभाग के अध्यक्ष प्रो. अशरफ इलियान के स्वागत भाषण से हुई. उन्होंने विश्वभर में असहाय, बिस्तर पर पड़े, लाइलाज बीमारियों से पीड़ित, आनुवंशिक रूप से बीमार और कैंसर से जूझ रहे रोगियों की सहायता के लिए डब्ल्यूएचपीसीडी के महत्व पर प्रकाश डाला.

प्रशामक देखभाल संवेदीकरण सत्र का नेतृत्व डीएनआईपीसीएआरई के महासचिव और भारत सरकार के वित्त मंत्रालय के सेवानिवृत्त अधिकारी श्री के.वी. हमजा ने किया. उन्होंने प्रशामक देखभाल के महत्व और इसके भारतीय संदर्भ में प्रासंगिकता को समझाया.

उन्होंने बताया कि भारत में केवल 2% लोगों को प्रशामक देखभाल मिलती है, जबकि वैश्विक औसत 14% है। हमजा ने केरल राज्य की प्रशंसा की, जहां 60% से अधिक कवरेज के साथ समुदाय आधारित प्रशामक देखभाल को सफलतापूर्वक लागू किया गया है, और इसे अन्य राज्यों में भी विस्तार करने की आवश्यकता पर जोर दिया.

सत्र का दूसरा भाग बुनियादी जीवन समर्थन (बीएलएस) प्रशिक्षण पर केंद्रित था, जिसे श्री देसंथ सी., जो वर्तमान महावीर मेडिकल कॉलेज और सफदरजंग अस्पताल, नई दिल्ली के नर्सिंग अधिकारी हैं, ने आयोजित किया. उन्होंने प्रतिभागियों को कार्डियोपल्मोनरी रिससिटेशन (सी.पी.आर.) जैसी जीवन रक्षक तकनीकों का प्रशिक्षण दिया। छात्रों और संकाय सदस्यों ने प्रशिक्षण के दौरान सी.पी.आर. का अभ्यास किया.

इस कार्यक्रम में अर्थशास्त्र के स्नातक और स्नातकोत्तर छात्रों ने उत्साहपूर्वक भाग लिया. समापन में डॉ. काशिफ खान ने धन्यवाद ज्ञापन दिया। डॉ. जकारिया सिद्दीकी, डॉ. वसीम अकरम और डॉ. काशिफ खान ने कार्यक्रम का सफल समन्वयन किया. कार्यक्रम का समापन समूह फोटो और जलपान के साथ हुआ.

JMI's Department of Economics organized a three day Faculty Development Program on Financial Econometrics with R

New Delhi

The Department of Economics, Jamia Millia Islamia (JMI) in association with University Placement Cell, JMI organized a three day Faculty Development Program (FDP) on Financial Econometrics with R during 5-7 November, 2024.

The event was inaugurated by Prof. Asheref Illiyan, Head, Department of Economics and FDP Director. In his opening remarks he underscored the importance such FDP in a data driven and technologically dynamic world.

The importance of Financial Econometrics and R software in research and Policy formulations was given by Prof. Moonis Shakeel, coordinator, FDP. Dr. Vasim Akram, co-coordinator, FDP proposed vote of thanks in the inaugural function.

The three day FDP witnessed eminent experts from IIT Delhi, JNU, JMI and AMU interacting with the participants who hail from different parts of the country and diverse institutions like IIT Delhi, IIT

Mandi, JMI, AMU, GITAM University, and PSG College, Coimbatore. The event was organised through 12 technical sessions besides inaugural and valedictory sessions. The FDP was a blend of theoretical and hands on practices which is the need of the hour.

Dr. Zakariya Siddiqui, Associate Professor, Deptt. of Economics, JMI, the first resource person of the first day taught inter alia R and R studio environment besides R Markdown, data visualization and different R packages for conducting empirical analysis.

Prof. Elumalai Kannan, CSRD, JNU in the afternoon of 5th November, 2024 elaborated and lucidly explained on modeling and theoretical aspects of Auto regressive (AR), Moving Average (MA) and Auto regressive Integrated Moving Average (ARIMA) models with the help of in-depth derivations of the variables.

On 6th November, 2024 Prof. Moonis Shakeel, Deptt. of Economics, JMI gave the participants hands on training session which consist of practical estimation and interpretation of different financial econometrics models like AR, MA, ARMA and ARIMA.

Followed by Hands on Session Dr. Vasim Akram, Deptt. of Economics, JMI illustrated concepts relating to Unit root testing, Co-integration and Granger Causality tests.

Dr. Sourabh B Paul, Associate Professor, IIT Delhi with his unique style of interacting with the participants on the second day of afternoon discussed Univariate Volatility Modelling (GARCH) keeping in mind the different background of the participants, starting with the very basic and swiftly moving to the advance modelling.

The final day of the FDP began with an engaging session and hands on by Prof. Moonis Shakeel, focusing on ARCH (Autoregressive Conditional Heteroskedasticity) and GARCH (Generalized Autoregressive Conditional Heteroskedasticity) models.

Following the lunch break, Dr. Tariq Masood, AMU discussed VAR (Vector Autoregression) and VECM (Vector Error Correction Model), both crucial for multivariate time series and financial analysis. The hands on VAR and VECM was handled by Dr. Zulquir Nain, AMU. Through simple steps he highlighted the application of VAR and VECM to the participants.

The sessions in the FDP enriched participants' expertise in econometric modeling, blending theoretical insights with practical R applications to advance financial data analysis skills.

The event was concluded with a valedictory session. Prof. Muslim Khan, Dean Faculty of Social Sciences, JMI was the Chief Guest. He distributed certificate to the participants and congratulated the Head of the Department and FDP Director, Prof. Ashere Illiyan and Organising Team, Prof. Moonis Shakeel, Coordinator of FDP and Dr. Vasim Akram, Co-coordinator of FDP and all other faculty members who were present (Dr. Zakaria Siddiqui and Dr. Mohammad Kashif Khan) for the smooth and successful organization of the three day event.

Department of Economics, JMI organizes Industry Connect Programme

NEW DELHI, OPEN SEARCH

Placement Cell, Department of Economics, Jamia Millia Islamia (JMI) organised an Industry Connect Program as part of Industry outreach and University- Industry Linkage on 19th November, 2024. Ms Preeti Khachru, HR Head and two other Executives: Ms HIRRANYA Pant and Pavitra Mohan Singh of Torque Communications, a PR company visited the Department of Economics, JMI and interacted with the students. Ms Preeti in her speech provided a detailed condition of the market at present and pitched their company, positions available, and the return from working with them.

Since it is imminent for the students to feel wary of a position in PR, especially when students do not have the same background, she wanted to ensure how the students have the necessary skills required and also how students with an Economics and Finance background are required within their company too. With the experience and presence in the communications market for 20 years, Torque Communications displayed their prowess in the field of consultancy, communications, public relations, and policy-making. They have worked extensively with huge brands such as the

Melinda Gates Foundation, the government, and made a significant impact in the fields of health, IT, taxation, logistics, education, agromachinery, etc

They invited students to work with them as full-time interns for the duration of 45-60 days and also encouraged students to apply for a job for the role of PR consultant at an entry level. They explained how people from different arenas of academics are required in PR consultancy as they alayed the dilemma of economics pertaining to their company requirements. Prof. Asheref Illiyan, Head, Department of Economics in his opening remarks highlighted that for promotion of internship and placement, the Department of Economics has taken several initiatives recently like Corporate Lecture Series, Industry visit by students and Alumni talk series among others. Dr. Mohammad Kashif Khan, coordinator of the session delivered the introductory remarks and Dr. Md Zakaria Siddiqui proposed vote of thanks and underscored the relevance of the proposed role to the students of Economics and Finance. Faculty members and more than 65 students from MA Economics and MSc Banking and Financial Analytics enthusiastically attended the event.

अंतर्राष्ट्रीय प्रवासन के लिए कौशल विकास पर दो दिवसीय अंतर्राष्ट्रीय सम्मेलन जामिया मिल्लिया इस्लामिया में शुरू हुआ

नई दिल्ली, संवाददाता।

जामिया मिल्लिया इस्लामिया के मीर अनीस ख़ान ने आज अंतर्राष्ट्रीय प्रवासन के लिए कौशल: सतत विकास और आर्थिक लचीलेपन के मार्ग पर एक अंतर्राष्ट्रीय सम्मेलन शुरू हुआ। दो दिवसीय सम्मेलन का आयोजन जामिया मिल्लिया इस्लामिया के अर्थशास्त्र विभाग द्वारा इंटरनेशनल इंस्टीट्यूट ऑफ़ माइग्रेशन एंड डेवलपमेंट (आईआईएमएडी), तिरुवनंतपुरम, केरल के सहयोग से दिनांक 19-20 दिसंबर 2024 को किया जा रहा है। सम्मेलन भारतीय सामाजिक विज्ञान अनुसंधान परिषद (आईसीएसएसआर) के उत्तरी क्षेत्रीय केंद्र द्वारा प्रायोजित है।

किया।

सम्मेलन संयोजक डॉ मोहम्मद कश्फ खान ने सम्मेलन के बारे में परिचय दिया और अंतर्राष्ट्रीय प्रवासन के कुछ मुख्य पहलुओं को साझा किया। उन्होंने ओईसीडी देशों (उच्च कौशल) और खाड़ी देशों (अर्ध-कौशल) में आवश्यक विभिन्न कौशलों को इंगित किया और व्यापक आर्थिक और सूक्ष्म आर्थिक प्रभावों के बीच अंतर का उल्लेख किया- जैसे कि कौशल संधि शिक्षा तक पहुंच में सुधार। उन्होंने यह भी कहा कि यदि युवा स्वी कौशल से लैस हों तो भारत जनसांख्यिकीय लाभों से महत्वपूर्ण लाभ उठा सकता है।

जामिया के माननीय कुलपति प्रो मजहर अरिफ ने अपने अफ़सोसीय उद्बोधन में यह बताया कि उन्होंने एक भाषाविद और सामाजिक वैज्ञानिक के रूप में प्रवासन का अध्ययन किया है। उनके अनुसार, प्रवासन का लंबा इतिहास साझा संस्कृति, भाषा और निवास स्थान की ओर इंगित करते हुए विभिन्न भाषाओं के बीच समानता से देखे जा सकते हैं। राष्ट्रीय शिक्षा नीति 2020 तैयार करने वाली समिति के एक सदस्य के रूप में उन्होंने यह भी कहा कि कौशल विकास इसके मूल में है। उन्होंने यह कहा कि जामिया के प्रत्येक छात्र के पास विश्वविद्यालय से पास आउट होने समय कुछ न कुछ कौशल होना चाहिए। उन्होंने सम्मेलन के आयोजकों को धन्यवाद दिया।

जामिया के कुलपति द्वारा प्रो इरुदय राजन द्वारा लिखित सम्मेलन के स्वर और प्रवासन रिपोर्ट 2023 की एक पुरस्कृत का विमोचन किया गया।

इस कार्यक्रम के मुख्य वक्ता, आईआईएमएडी के संस्थापक अध्यक्ष, प्रो इरुदय राजन ने इस बात को साझा किया कि सम्मेलन के बारे में कैसे सोचा गया, और इसके उद्देश्यों के बारे में और खास तौर से

अंतर्राष्ट्रीय प्रवासन के बारे में गंभीर चर्चा करने के लिए पेशेवर, शिक्षाविदों और नीति निर्माताओं को एक मंच पर लाने के बारे में विचार किया गया। उन्होंने इस बात पर प्रकाश डाला कि भारत पहले प्रकार के जनसांख्यिकीय लाभों (मात्रात्मक) से लाभान्वित हो रहा है, लेकिन दूसरे प्रकार (गुणात्मक) से नहीं, इसके लिए कौशल विकास की आवश्यकता है। उन्होंने बताया कि एक राज्य (जैसे, केरल) के मजदूर खाड़ी देशों में जा रहे हैं और उनके स्थान पर दूसरे राज्य (जैसे, ओडिशा) के मजदूर फलानत कर रहे हैं। उन्होंने इसे प्रतिस्थापन प्रवासन कहा। उनकी राय में, प्रवासन पहले से ही राजनीति का एक विषय बन गया है और वह भी अंतर्राष्ट्रीय स्तर पर, जिस कि हाल के अमेरिकी राष्ट्रपति चुनाव में देखा गया, और भारत में कई भारतीय राज्यों में सन अर्बों दिन सफल तर्क के माध्यम से देखा गया। उन्होंने पाया कि समय के साथ प्रवासन पर शोध करने

वाले शोधकर्ताओं की संख्या में अत्यधिक वृद्धि हुई है और विशेष रूप से कोविड महामारी के उपरोक्त से। उन्होंने प्रवासन जनगणना का आह्वान किया जिस पर आंध्र प्रदेश में पहले से ही चर्चा चल रही है।

जवाहरलाल नेहरू विश्वविद्यालय के पूर्व प्रोफेसर प्रो अमितभ कुंदू ने अपनी खूबसूरत टिप्पणी में प्रवासन पर विस्तृत डेटा की अपेक्षा और डेटा जारी करने में देरी की ओर इशारा किया, जिसका बहुत कम महत्व है। उनके अनुसार, जिले से जिले में प्रवासन डेटा शोधकर्ताओं के लिए बहुत मददगार होगा जिसे जनगणना आयुक्त के कार्यालय के थोड़े ही प्रयास से एकत्रित किया जा सकता है। जामिया के सामाजिक विज्ञान संकाय के डीन प्रो मोहम्मद मुस्लिम खान ने बताया कि सम्मेलन में भाग लेने वाले अधिकारियों लोग प्रभावी हैं। उन्होंने प्रवासियों के साथ होने वाले विभिन्न प्रकार के दुर्घटनाओं और शोषण के बारे में बताया। उन्होंने मेजबान और गंतव्य देशों की सरकारों के बीच प्रवासन और अंतर्राष्ट्रीय संबंधों के बीच संबंध की ओर भी इशारा किया। सम्मेलन सचिव डॉ मोहम्मद जफरिया सिद्दीकी ने धन्यवाद ज्ञापित किया। उद्घाटन समारोह के अतिरिक्त सम्मेलन में तीन पूर्ण सत्र और छह तकनीकी सत्र होंगे जिनमें प्रखरत अर्थशास्त्री, नीति निर्माता और पेशेवर सम्मेलन के विभिन्न विषयों पर विचार-विमर्श करेंगे।

The three-day faculty development program was held in hybrid mode, and over 65 participants attended the program in online and offline modes to learn about the AI techniques applicable to economic modelling and research.

Jamia Millia Islamia's Department of Economics organised a three-day Faculty Development Programme (FDP) on Artificial Intelligence (AI) Techniques for Economic Modelling in hybrid mode. The program successfully achieved an enriching experience by equipping faculty members with cutting-edge AI techniques applicable to economic modelling and research, where more than 65 participants attended the program in online and offline modes.

The Head of Department of Economics, Prof. Asheref Illiyan, commenced the event where he highlighted how AI is emerging as a general purpose technology and how the Department of Economics has been ahead of many other Departments/ Centres in adopting new technologies in teaching and research.

Meanwhile, Dr Sarfaraz Masood, Associate Professor of JMI's Department of Computer Engineering, delivered the inaugural address on Artificial Neural Networks (ANN) and Generative Adversarial Networks (GAN) and their applications in economic modelling. Going forward, Prof. Moonis Shakeel educated the audience concerning machine learning and Python programming and the final session was conducted by Dr. Zakaria Siddiqui, Associate Professor, Department of Economics, JMI, who introduced participants to R programming, equipping them with fundamental coding skills for AI-driven economic analysis.

Day two was filled with interactive sessions by Dr Feetika Vashista and Dr Mohd Zeeshan Ansari, while the final day included interactive sessions by Pro Suriya Jabeen and Dr Neda Fatima from Manav Rachna International Institute of Research and Studies.

New Delhi: The Department of Economics, Jamia Millia Islamia (JMI), successfully organized a three-day Faculty Development Programme (FDP) on “Artificial Intelligence (AI) Techniques for Economic Modelling” in hybrid mode from February 23-25, 2025. The three-day FDP proved to be an enriching experience, equipping faculty members with cutting-edge AI techniques applicable to economic modelling and research.

The event commenced with a warm welcome by Prof. Asheref Illiyan, Head of the Department of Economics, JMI and FDP Director. In his opening remarks he highlighted how AI is emerging as a general purpose technology and how the Department of Economics has been ahead of many other Departments/ Centres in adopting new technologies in teaching and research. Prof. Moonis Shakeel, the coordinator of the programme gave a brief introduction of the programme and highlighted the significance of AI and machine learning in academic research and economic modelling.

Dr. Sarfaraz Masood, Associate Professor, Department of Computer Engineering, JMI, delivered the inaugural address, setting the stage for an insightful learning experience. He then conducted a session on Artificial Neural Networks (ANN) and Generative Adversarial Networks (GAN) and their applications in economic modelling.

The next session was led by Prof. Moonis Shakeel, who provided an introduction to machine learning and Python programming. The final session of the day was conducted by Dr. Zakaria Siddiqui, Associate Professor, Department of Economics, JMI, who introduced participants to R programming, equipping them with fundamental coding skills for AI-driven economic analysis.

The second day started with a session by Dr. Geetika Vashista from the Department of Computer Science, University of Delhi, who delved into Classification Techniques such as k- Nearest Neighbours (kNN), Logistic Regression, Discriminant Analysis, and Support Vector Machines (SVM).

The next session was conducted by Dr. Mohd Zeeshan Ansari, Assistant Professor in the Department of Computer Engineering, JMI, who covered Regression Techniques, including kNN, Random Forest, XGBoost, LASSO, Ridge Regression, and Elastic Net.

The final day began with Prof. Suriya Jabeen, Department of Computer Science, JMI, leading a session on Classification Techniques, covering Naïve Bayes, Decision Trees, and Neural Networks.

The concluding technical session was delivered by Dr. Neda Fatima from Manav Rachna International Institute of Research and Studies, School of Engineering and Technology, Haryana. She provided a comprehensive lecture on Regression Techniques, both Linear and Non-linear, offering participants practical insights into AI-driven economic analysis.
