THIS MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING IS SIGNED BETWEEN:

Jamia Millia Islamia, a Central University created by an enactment of the Parliament of India (i.e the Jamia Millia Islamia Act, 1988) and is a body corporate with a perpetual succession and a common seal (acting through its Registrar Sh. Prof. Shahid Ashraf)

AND

Save the Children, a society registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 having Head Office at Plot No. 91, 1st & 2nd Floor, Sector 44, Gurgaon-122003, Haryana, India.

AND WHEREAS it is the statutory object of the Jamia Millia Islamia University to disseminate and advance knowledge by providing instructional, research and extension facilities in such branches of learning as it may deem fit and it shall endeavor to provide to students and teachers the necessary atmosphere and facilities for the promotion of:

- I. innovations in education leading to restructuring of courses, new methods of teaching and learning and integral development of personality,
- II. studies in various disciplines :
- III. Inter disciplinary studies,
- IV. National integration, secularism and international under – standing.

NOW THEREFORE the Jamia Millia Islamia and Save the Children have intended, agreed and consented to the following terms and deeds in pursuance of a common intent to promote and develop Training workshop on Peace Education for the state of Jammu and Kashmir

1. FIELD OF CO OPERATION :

Role of Jamia Millia Islamia

- Develop relevant training content on peace education for teachers in J & K in consultation with relevant stakeholders (teachers, students in J & K; Save the Children's child protection and education experts; scholars, etc.)
- Lead pilot training, based on newly developed content, and finalize content based on a participatory review and subsequent feedback
- Print the finalized training module for wider use and dissemination.

Role of Save the Children

- Bring together teachers and relevant stakeholders to develop peace education content
- Work with Jamia in development of relevant content and pilot it with set of 40 teachers in the state.
- Collect evidence on the use/ impact of peace education delivered (from teachers, children, etc) and advocate with the government for its up-scaling.

2. EXCHANGE OF STUDENTS / TEACHERS :

- a) Reciprocal arrangements based on mutually acceptable terms shall be accomplished to give an impetus to collaborative research and joint projects. Teachers, researchers, guides and students of both the institutions shall be encouraged to work in tandem in the laboratories, workshops, faculties and departments of both the institutions.
- b) Issues relating to travel, boarding, lodging, miscellaneous expenses shall be mutually worked out according to and by taking into account the rules, regulations and policies of each institution.

SCOPE OF WORK:

- Under peace education, a focused partnership is envisioned with the 'Nelson Mandela Centre for Peace and Conflict Resolution' department at Jamia Milia University. The institutional tie-up proposed here will ensure the development of appropriate training modules on peace education to children in J&K. This material, once finalized and used, has the potential of being formally adopted as part of teacher training provided by the state government. As Save the Children works in close cooperation with the state government of J & K, the organisation will advocate for this integration.
- A strong partnership between Jamia's peace studies department and Save the Children is intended for 1) creating a resource pool of 40 teachers; 2) developing appropriate and context-specific peace education material for school children – and advocating with the government on its integration with teacher training provided by the state.
- Peace-building activities will be promoted, focused on making people aware of the concept of schools as a safe place, particularly as a place where the young can transcend ethnic and religious divides, free from external influences and interference. Gaining respect for this concept will be a key focus of these activities.
- Art competitions will be held around the year, with the best work being exhibited at a show in Srinagar on 21 September, to coincide with UN International Day of Peace, when the project will promote a range of peace-related celebrations.
- Child protection mechanisms will be established in the 20 schools, through the implementation of child protection policies in each school. Teachers and students will be trained on child rights & protection and on child safeguarding policies. The enforcement and respect for child protection mechanisms and their ability to respond to child safeguarding issues will be ensured through regular monthly meetings and reviews of the 20 student forums.

3. TIME SCALE:

The duration of this arrangement will be for 3 months beginning from 20th August 2015 and ending on 20th November 2015, unless terminated earlier as provided in the Miscellaneous provisions here-to
