

Diploma in Translation Proficiency
(Self- Finance)
Department of English
Jamia Millia Islamia

Eligibility – Graduation plus proficiency in one more language apart from English

Total Number of Seats - 35

Selection Criteria - Written Test

Duration - 2 semesters

Course Fee – Rs 18,000

Programme Description

The course, focusing on the practical component, initiates the students into translation. The lesson plans are designed to explain the process of translation, along with understanding the nuances of the different registers of translation – both of a literary and as well as a non-literary piece. Emphasis is on editing in translation too.

- ❖ While the students need to be proficient in any one language apart from English, the faculty in the department would be taking examples from Hindi, Urdu and English only.

Semester I

S. No.	Paper Code	Paper Title	Credits	Mid-Term Assessment (Internal)	End Term Assessment
1.	DTP 01	Introduction to Translation <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Types and Approaches of translations• Central Issues on Translation• Introduction to Literary Translation, discussing problems of translating various genres of literature and the difference between referential and non-referential texts• Translation of short literary passages• Translation of poems and songs	4	25	75

Semester II

S. No.	Paper Code	Paper Title	Credits	Mid-Term Assessment (Internal)	End Term Assessment
1	DTP 02	Registers of Translation <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Introduction to various registers of translation: literary and non-literary• Translating a Journalsitic Text• Translating Financial and Legal Texts• Translator's Tools: Importance of Dictionaries, Database and glossaries. Importance of CAT (Computer Aided Translation) tools and the need for technical consistency. Use of online dictionaries and other technical resources.• Introduction to Editing and Proofreading in translation	4	25	75
2.	DTP03	Project Work	4	-	100