NCC Cadets from JMI Schools participates in ten-day Combined Annual Training Camp (CATC)

The 10-day Combined Annual Training Camp (CATC) held at Safdarjung, New Delhi, under the guidance of Illrd Officer Hayat Alam (Lecturer Economics, Jamia Sr. Sec. School), provided a unique opportunity for the JD/JW NCC cadets of Jamia Schools to enhance their skills, discipline, and camaraderie. The camp, conducted by 2 Delhi Naval Unit New Delhi, where in cadets of more than 5 schools participated along with cadets of RDC practicing for Republic Day exposed the cadets to a diverse range of activities, fostering their holistic development.

Participation and Achievements:

The Jamia Schools cadets actively participated in various activities during the 10-day camp, demonstrating exceptional zeal and dedication. Their efforts were rewarded with several notable achievements:

- Cadet Meeza (X D, Jamia Girls Sr. Sec. School): Won the 1st prize in the book review competition.
- Cadet Rida Hussain (X C, Jamia Girls Sr. Sec. School): Recognized as the Most Enterprising Cadet and Best Firing.
- Cadet Atia Afroz (X B, Jamia Girls Sr Sec School) : Awarded the Best Sports Person title who won the Basketball and Volleyball match.
- Cadet Saba Khan (X B, Jamia Girls Sr Sec School) Honored for excellence in ship modeling.

Overall Impact:

The CATC experience had a profound impact on the participating cadets. It not only honed their physical and mental abilities but also instilled in them a strong sense of discipline, teamwork, and patriotism. The exposure to diverse activities and the opportunity to interact with cadets from different backgrounds broadened their horizons and enriched their overall personality development.

The successful participation of Jamia Schools cadets in the 10-day CATC is a testament to the dedication and hard work of the cadets, the guidance of Illrd Officer Hayat Alam, and the support of the NCC unit. Such experiences are invaluable in shaping young minds and preparing them for future challenges. It is hoped that these cadets will continue to excel in their academic and extracurricular pursuits, carrying forward the spirit of the NCC and contributing positively to society.
